To Tam,
Have a great summer!
Even though we've had our ups and downs, you're a great person and a great friend. Have fun in U.S.
Congrats on your awards, and keep it up!
Love,

THE SPIRIT

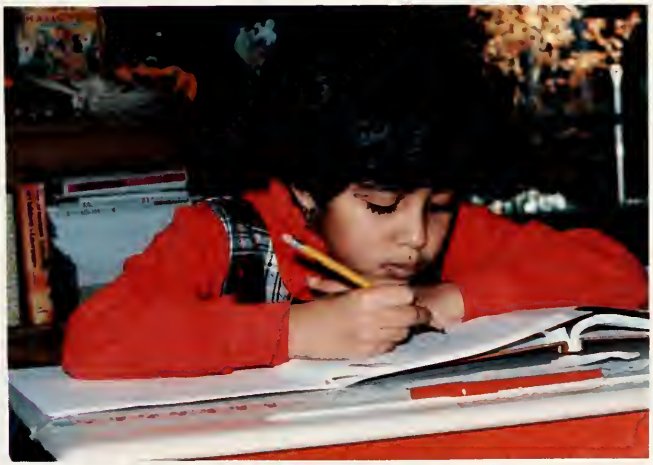
OF 1988

spirit (spirit) n. ME OFr. espirit
L. spiritus, breath, courage, vigor, the soul, life.

2. the life principle, esp. in man.

3. vivacity, courage, vigor, enthusiasm.

4. a prevading animating principle.
Webster's New World Dictionary



The student body and faculty of University Liggett spread spirit throughout the whole school with smiles and enthusiasm. This year's book has captured those moments and memories with words and photos permanently preserving the many facets of each member of the ULS community, as well as the school as a whole.

That night they considered how best they might proceed and agreed to separate and go their several ways, for it would redound to their shame if they rode in a band together . . . Then they rode out from the castle and separated as they had decided amongst themselves, striking out into the forest, one here, one there, wherever they saw it thickest and wherever track or path was absent. And even those men who fancied themselves hard and proud shed tears at this leave-taking.
The Quest of the Holy Grail

Thanks, love, and luck to my friends who have made these 4 years worthwhile.
Annie, Nicole, and Jen, thanks for always being there.
Annie, I know you'll be great at whatever it is you decide to do with that physics-mind of yours.
Nicole, are we really that scary? Let's do lunch when we really are 40-year-old divorcees.
Jen, we've known each other for so long-we finally made it. Thank you for your honesty and reliability throughout these 7 toilsome years. A friendship as long-lasting as ours is rare. It is to be treasured.

"Someone will say, 'And are you not ashamed, Socrates, of a course of life which is likely to bring you to an untimely end?' To him I may fairly answer, 'There you are mistaken: a man who is good for anything ought not to calculate the chance of living or dying; he ought only to consider whether he is acting the part of a good man or of a bad.' "

" 'And now, O men who have condemned me, I would fain to prophesy to you, for I am about to die, and in the hour of death men are gifted with prophetic power. And I prophesy to you who are my murderers, that immediately after my departure punishment far heavier than you have inflicted on me will surely await you. Me you have killed because you wanted to escape the accuser, and not to give an account of your lives! But that will not be as you suppose; far otherwise. For I say that there will be more accussers of you, and you will be more offended at them. If you think that by killing men you can prevent someone from censuring your evil lies, you are mistaken.' "

Socrates, as cited by Mayor Orden in The Moon is Down by John Steinbeck

"Would you tell me, please which way I ought to go from here?"
"That depends a good deal on where you want to," said the cat.
"I don't much care where -"said Alice.
"Then it doesn't much matter which way you go," said the cat.
"So long as I get somewhere," Alice added as an explanation.
"Oh you're sure to do that," said the cat, "if you only walk long enough."

but just glance back at it, it will last . . .

And keep in mind this saying-
"Many ways will seem right,
But only the right one will show light."
Though we may never again see one another,
Please do not sever the ties that bind us together

Remember the laughter and the tears
Hopes, dreams and fears.
We each let down the gates at the start
Cautiously, exposing our vulnerable hearts.
Now is the end.
As you on Life's ever — winding road turn the bend,
I call to you
Goodbye.

親愛的爸"媽"，

時间過得真快，我已經畢業了。在這短短十九年间您们給我不停的鼓励和教訓，當我踏上大學的路途，我会記住您们所教的。您们所做的一切是为了我们的前途。這一點不是每一個父母能做到的。我就快上大學了。希望您们繼續指點和支持我。我们是最幸福的人因为我们是您们的兒女！

The secret of life is enjoying the passage of time
Any fool can do it
There ain't nothing to it
Nobody knows how we got it
The top of the hill
But since we're on our way down
We might as well enjoy the ride.

Where will I be in 1998?Who cares?Will I be happy?

Good Question.

Jennifer Preisman

"Tonight I want to say something wonderful for the sleepwalkers who have so much faith in their legs" (E.H) . . . Yet hard as I try, all trite phrases fail me. So instead of being trendy, I will merely begin, or some might say conclude, with a few personalized messages for those who have made a difference . . . In Memorium: To everyone who ever read my poetry, put up with my warped mind, listened to my exceptional advice, made me laugh, or otherwise gave me faith, may you find something Real . . . To Laura Strong: Thanks for the use of your photo studio. Inside you lies a poet waiting to explode . . . To David: Christopher Reeve doesn't even compare. Good luck with Lois Lane . . . To Laura Rizzo: Thanks for all the friendship. Maybe someday you'll see the orange in the sky . . . To Nicole: I hope you find whatever you're looking for. You deserve the world. I'll see you in the Boston Marathon, at the front of the pack, of course . . . Ann: Always remember . . . chicken and the eggs . . . the ski lift choir . . . Florida, Ireland, and of course Twister in its metaphorical sense . . . I hope you discover your happiness. Stay groovy and stay True . . . And finally, Lisa: I could list seven years worth of inside jokes, but there's no need to document our insanity. Suffice it to say that after circling the blocks by rote for years and laughing at the hypocricy of it all, we're finally going to find something genuine. And in the true Breakfast Club tradition, we'll make sure that our hearts don't die. As I'm travelling the world and you're discussing philosophy on a mountaintop in Tibet, remember that my friendship is yours always. And I guarantee that someday we'll bump into the men in the airport, and finally we'll know the meaning of life . . . In conclusion or in commencement: I love you, Mommy and Daddy . . . May there be Peace on earth someday . . . And anyone who expects to survive in this world of paradoxes should remember . . . A cliché is a cliché because it's so true . . .

. . . I imagine us coming out into the streets, poets and children and soldiers, all,
all of us together, all of us swaddled with real bodies, with strange human bodies,
all of us wrapped in the slender tinsel of our wars and our deep secrets, all of us weighted down by our moons and our dead planets, all of us spinning out into the day together.
— Hirsch

There are places I'll remember all my life though some have changed.
Some forget not for better,
Some have gone and some remain.
All these places had their moments,
with lovers and friends I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living,
In my life I've loved them all.
-Beatles

Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime we'll take the best, forget the rest and someday we'll find,
These are the best of times.

Laura Lynne Rizzo

Laura Lynn Rizzo. That's my name don't wear it out, but you can call me Riz. Chez, you can call me Zo. Ann, don't let the slopes scare you. I still think that boy was after you! Thanks to you and Jenn for all the calming lessons. Jenn honey, you haven't laid any eggs recently; I hope you are not out of practice. While we are not there to restrain you, try not to be too perverted. Sue, no one answered our question: "Excuse me, what is an ion?" Alice, you have to admit that you are stimulated by our pre-cal class. Chris, how is your chili dog? Tom, thanks for the math help and calming sessions. No Diane, I don't want to play tennis! So Jewel, ya think I should drink Pepsi in the car anymore? Mary, we still haven't gone nailpolish shopping. Dearest David. Was I a little nervous Prom night? Sorry. Please David, make my day and give me a detention! Senora de Brown, one day I will learn how to pay attention to picky uns, I will let you know. We can celebrate!, thanks for all your teachings. Mrs. Sinkel, that A on a pre-cal test is still coming. Allie and Lynn, take good care of Mr. Wood for me. Mr. Wood thanks for the great season. When I hear Whitney's song I'll think of you. Liggett thanks for everything, I'll thank you next year. Last but not least, thanks Mom and Dad for all your support. Mom, I refuse to keep mileage! Yes Dad, I'll be good, I won't do anything stupid, I'll keep my hands to myself, I won't trust a nobody, and I'll always reach for the stars.

Will be in 1998: Married, careered, and possibly kids.

"Thanks for everything special which I never will forget."

Friends are forever; I'm so glad you all are mine.

Still talking!

"Ah, Mommie!"

For what is the present after all but a growth out of the past? -Walt Whitman

After a while you learn the subtle difference between holding a hand and changing a soul

And you learn that love doesn't mean leaning and company doesn't mean security ....

And you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes open, with the grace of an adult, not the grief of a child.

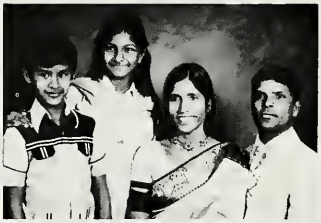
And you learn to build all your roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans.

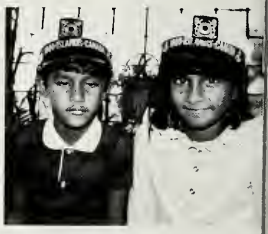
After a while you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too much.

So plant your garden and decorate your own soul, instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers,

And you learn that you can really endure .... And you really do have worth.

-Anonymous





Life is living, loving, caring and sharing with the people you love.

Life is nothing without friendship.
-Cicero

You only live once,
But if you live life right
Once is enough.

For the past is past and will never return the future we know not, and only the present can be called our own.

Thanks Liggett for helping me achieve my goals ... I'll miss you ... To everyone who has helped me laugh for all of these years ... I hope we meet again ... Bye for now!

Don't look to the past, it is too sad.
Don't look to the future, it is too scary.
Just live each day for what it is.

Vanessa, I could never wish for a better sister. Thanks for sharing my thoughts. I couldn't imagine school without you. For all of the late night secrets and bright days, may we laugh together forever!

Nadia, thanks for the hysterical laughs in the back of the car and just being yourself. I have watched you grow into a strong person. Thanks for the happy memories. I will always have a smile for you. I love you more than you will ever know.

Mum and Dad, you are the best parents. Thanks for your continual support and understanding. You have taught me to walk, so now I can truely run. I couldn't have made it without you. I love you!

A picture is worth 1000 words.

Mary, Lisa, Kathleen, Pete, Joy, Linda, Saima, Chris, Sue, Elizabeth, Anthony, Kevin and Mark. I will take a part of you with me always. Thanks for the care and support. If you ever need anything, I'll be there for you as you've been for me. Thanks for everything. You have made me laugh and given me the world. I love you!

Will be in '98': Living the life of Kevin Dolenz

Alex: Through the good times and the bad, you've always been there. I wish I were half as good to you. But you always forgave my temper and always understood. Love and Care always.

Kirk: You are my brother and friend. People compare you to me, but do so incorrectly. You are me and a whole lot more. Always keep your head up and your shoulders high.

Susan: There have been both good and bad times. Through it all we've tried our best. Remember our quote "You are more important to me than you'll ever know." I wish you the best and no matter what happens I care and respect you as a person and a friend. We had it all ... for just a moment. -David Foster

Quotes
I take one, one, one cause you left me and two,two,two for my family and three, three, three for my heartache and four, four, four for my headache and five, five, five for my lonely and six, six, six for my sorrow and seven, seven ... no tomorrow and eight, eight ... I forgot what eight was for but nine, nine, nine for a lost god and ten, ten, ten, ten for everything, everything, everything.-Violent Femmes

Junior

The Class of 1989 got their first taste of many things this year. To name a few: their first SAT's, first college handbook — "What's a college handbook?", their first 2,000 word history paper, and of course, the prom. Held at the Boat Club again this year, the prom was a great success due mainly to the great percentage of class participation in making all the arrangements. The Junior Rummage Sale at the beginning of the year proved to be an excellent source of funds to contribute to the prom planning.

The class of 1990 had a most lucrative yet unselfish year. In October, the class organized the Sophomore Food Sale in conjunction with the Junior Rummage Sale. Later in the year, Grosse Pointers reaped the benefits of their hard work with the Sophomore car wash. However, the class's most praised effort was the shoe drive for the COTS shelter for the homeless of the Detroit community. Over 250 pairs of shoes were collected! Hopefully, their hard work and unselfishness will continue in the future.

This year's freshman class surprised the whole school with its unity and spirit so early in the high school years. At the first pep rally of the year, the entire class participated in the cheer - a record for Liggett freshmen! The class was decked out in yellow (their class color) for the first day of Spirit Week, earning over 300 points.

The Student Faculty Advisory Committee is a group which provides the administration with information and opinions concerning disciplinary decisions. The committee is composed of the Vice-President of the Student Council, two Seniors and two Juniors elected by their respective classes, an appointed member of the faculty, and three elected faculty representatives.

The Student Council consists of four elected representatives from each grade and three faculty advisors. Its purpose is to organize the activities that occur throughout the school.

Its two greatest successes were its Boxer Short Sale and the creation of WULS News.

FRESHMEN CLASS OFFICERS
First Row: Eddie Patten, Kristen Feemster, Julee Mertz, Duncan McMillan.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS
First Row: Nona Yahia, Meghan Brady, Stewart McLaren, Jeff Prus.

SOPHOMORES CLASS OFFICERS

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

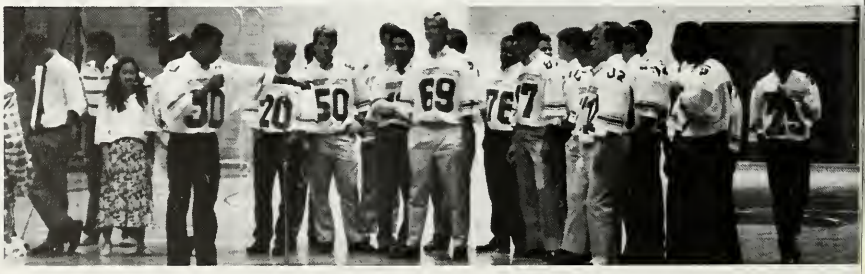
The Athletic Council, in collaboration with Miss Brock and Mr. Wood, works at making decisions to enhance the Upper School sports program. Each class is represented by two male and two female members. This year the Council organized athletic banquets, spirit building pep rallies, as seen in the pictures, and a spirit week including contests between classes. The success of these activities has helped build class unity and spirit throughout the entire school.



CUM LAUDE = NATIONAL MERIT

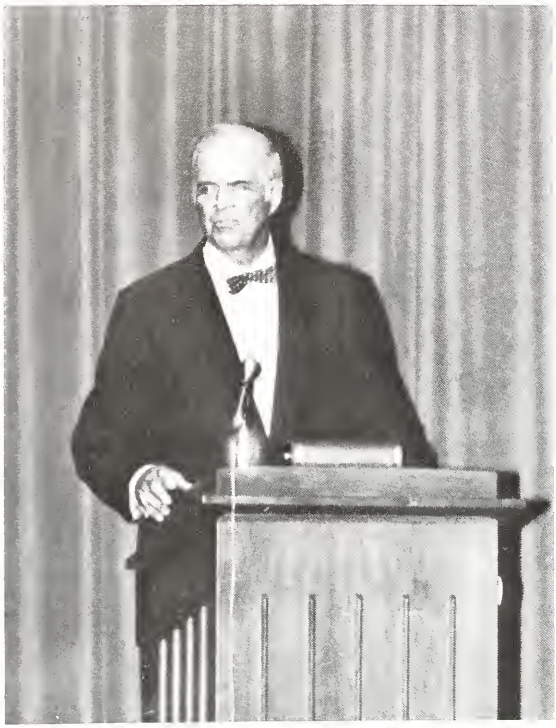
CUM LAUDE

The Cum Laude Society elects annually the most distinguished scholars from the senior and junior class. Like the Phi Beta Kappa Society on the college level, the Cum Laude Society is permitted to induct a few of the most completely successful students in each class.

NATIONAL MERIT SEMI-FINALISTS

Each October Juniors across the nation take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude test. A small number are commended for their extraordinary scores. An even smaller number, the top of one percent of all juniors taking the PSAT are named Semi-Finalists.

ASSEMBLIES



"I am assemblies" . . . Again this year, ULS Upper School students have been graced by the presence of great orators, public figures, singers, and often their own Upper School peers displaying a wide variety of talents. Students were fortunate to hear the late G. Mennen Williams, Michigan's former governor, speak, as well as hearing the friends of ULS's Mr. DelGrosso "singing the blues". Susan Danoff entertained the whole school with her wonderful talent as a storyteller and students Gerald Curley, Shannon Burrows, and Jon Hammond brought a feeling of innocence and amusement to the audience as they starred in the short musical, "The Reluctant Dragon". A Liggett graduate of 1937, Constance Stanton deBeausset increased students' awareness of the social problems in Honduras and set an inspiring example with her work establishing a boys' home for orphaned Honduran boys.

STUDENT/FACULTY FORUM

The Student Faculty Forum is an organization composed of teachers and students who meet about once a month to discuss current events and controversial topics. Often, they organize discussions and presentations that involve the whole school. Recent topics have included: racism, sexism, Third World politics, eating disorders, stress and pressure, and the "Children of War".

That red costume is terrible ... I like it, the show's too dull anyway ... How many paid? ... Sanders, what is so funny ... how many people in the audience? ... who said anything about a bikini ... Look, if I'm not looking at my feet, I'm not going to remember they're there!!! ... Soprano, alto, tenor, bass, Phleeger ... what's a nice girl doing in a play like this?

SINGING AND INSTRUMENTAL GROUPS

JAZZ BAND: Paul Brigolin, Dan Shanle, Chris Codish, Mr. Hohmeyer, Malin Engstrom, Julian Go.

"Energy spent by music students now will pay great dividends later," comments Mr. Hohmeyer, head of the music department. Judging by all of the vocal and instrumental groups at ULS, this is certainly true.

Chorale, which performs three concerts a year, is an important part of the creative and performing arts. The Jazz Choir stems from Chorale with sixteen voices and performs ten concerts a year. Last year's Box Populars and the Kopy Kats are now singing together as the Kat Boxes.

The Bach's Populars, one of the three instrumental groups at ULS perform baroque chamber music. The Woodwind Ensemble and the Jazz Band practice diligently to attain their high levels of performance. 1987-88 has been a year of many changes for the music department, but the sounds of success echo throughout the hall of the arts wing at ULS.

SPANISH CLUB AND HONOR SOCIETY

The Spanish Club is a group of enthusiastic students who are interested in developing their knowledge of the Spanish culture. Activities included a dinner at Chi-Chi's, a Spanish movie, and a piñata party for Christmas. The year-long donut sale is a major part of the club as it raises money for the support of Casa Maria and the various other activities sponsored by the Spanish Club.

DEBATE = CHESS CLUB

DEBATE: First Row: Prasad Rao, Manisha Kulkarni, Alexander Stein, Alex Missal, Adam Levinson. Second Row: Kavita Sood, Nischal Sood, Tom Vallone.

The Debate team had another successful year, this time coached by a new faculty member, Mr. Mickey Blashfield. As in the past, the team participated in over 15 tournaments throughout the country. The team participated in its first national tournament in New York and also debated at St. Mark's School in Texas, whose headmaster was once our own Mr. Whatley. Hopefully the team will keep its state championship title again this year!

The Chess Club and its members cannot be better typified than by the following quote from one of its past presidents, Karl Meyer: "The 'boys of the Chess Club' exemplify what is most noble in the Liggett student body: The intestinal fortitude to flirt with abstraction for hours on end, even when the game is over, the patience of a martyr to endure crushing blows to the ego, tournament after tournament. The courage to fall for any gambit, no matter how obvious; but best of all, the boys really know how to have a good time."

PHASES = PHILOSOPHY CLUB

Phases is a literary organization headed by faculty member Ms. Smith that issues an annual magazine composed mainly of literary works by students. Short stories, poems, artwork, and photography are included in the magazine. Phases' staff analyzes work submitted by students, selects favorites, and prints them in each year's issue.

Why is the sky blue? Is there a little man inside pop machines? These are the types of topics which the Philosophy Club discusses. This student-run organization talks freely about subjects ranging from world peace to Boy George's sexual perference.

The Science Club rebounded from its absence in the past few years to great success. Projects this year included lower school science tutoring, a bagel sale, and ULS's first science newsletter. Articles were submitted and then printed using funds from the fundraisers, especially the bagel sale. The newsletter's success this year will make it a continuing tradition.

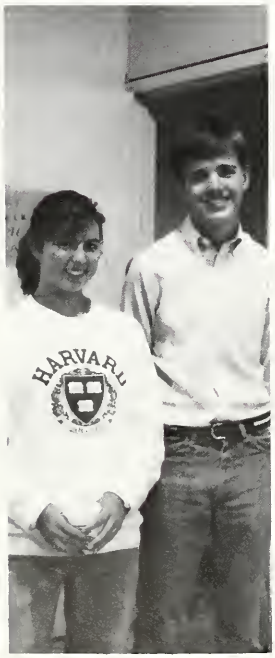
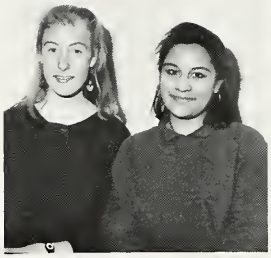
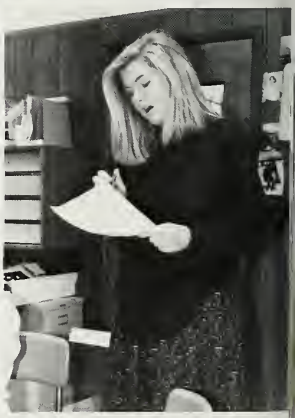
RUMMAGE SALE



The Junior Class Rummage Sale was sponsored by the class of 1989. As in past years, the income from this activity funded the Junior Prom and will also be used to purchase a Senior gift for the school. Profits this year amounted to over five thousand dollars!

BIG/LITTLE DAY





We need more pictures ... 1 of 10 pictures in focus ... not another trip to the middls school again ... pizza, with quadruple green peppers ... assembly line ... check Cindy's copies ... are there any pictures from last year we can use? ... Mrs. Deadline ... a copy ... no Saima ... I can't, I'm going to Pakistan ... don't tell it's the wrong senior picture ... what's a pica? ... what's the job number? ... don't forget-centered vertically ... does this get us out of hockey? ... Jeff and Stu please ... of course we have another deadline ... why aren't there any guys on yearbook?

HOLIDAY FESTIVAL '87

The annual Holiday Festival was held, as in past years, at the War Memorial and was sponsored by the Senior parents. The chaperones also served the annual Christmas meal. Before and after the meal, the students enjoyed the entertainment of two singing groups. The famous Holiday Festival skit this year was "Christmas with the Castaways", a.k.a. "Christmas Eve on Gilligan's Island". The skit, written by Senior Erich Schneider, was performed by mostly seniors. It was a roaring success. The anonymous Santa (this year joined by Mrs. Claus) was immediately discovered to be Mr. Fowler and Mrs. Fowler. Many ULS students made their "naughty and nice" list, and mock gifts were handed out at the end of the evening. A representative from each class made well-wishes for a happy holiday season. Senior chairperson Susie Davis and Junior chairperson Elizabeth Sieber deserve great commendation for the time and efforts they put forth for the fun and enjoyment of the entire Upper School.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS OF 1987-88

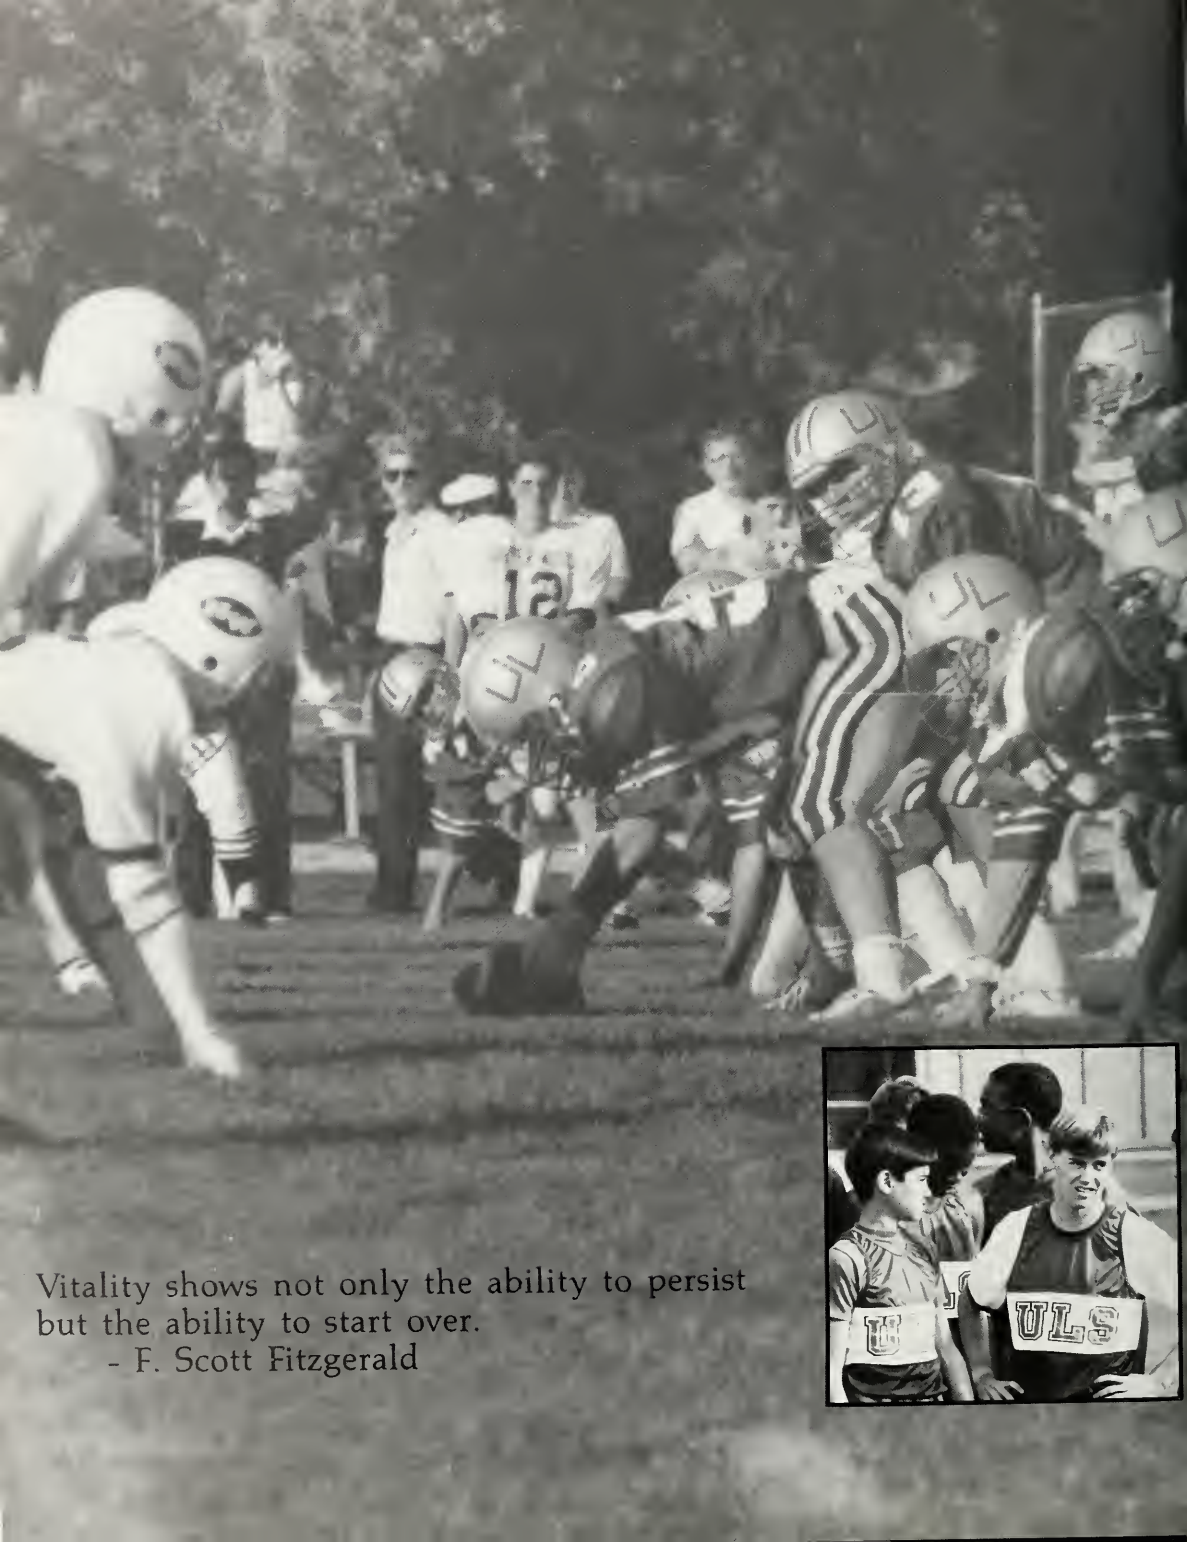
The ASSIST Program provides well-rounded foreign students with the unique opportunity of spending an academic year in the United States while living with American families. This year, ULS has the privilege of hosting three ASSIST students. Virginia Abascal, from Madrid, Spain, has filled her year here with participation on several athletic teams, including girls' ice hockey. Malin Engstrom, from Sweden, has displayed her incredible singing voice during assemblies and various student concerts. She also has been a member of the ice hockey team as well as the girls' soccer team. Alex Missal, from Germany, has added his perspicacity to enhance the Debate team. All three have contributed significantly to the life and spirit of the ULS community, and we hope they have gained as much as we have from the time they have spent with us.

Fred Thelander has joined us this year from a city in Sweden near Stockholm. He was a member of the boys' varsity hockey team, but more significantly, he contributed his excellent tennis ability to the ULS boys team. His sense of humor and friendly personality will not be forgotten after he returns to Sweden.



Vitality shows not only the ability to persist but the ability to start over.

UPPER SCHOOL SPORTS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1987 Varsity Football team, coached by Bob Newvine, with assistant coaches Paul Fox and Steve Jackson, had a continually progressive season.

Because 18 of the 25 players in this year's team were underclassmen, this season was a great learning experience for all. Each practice was demanding while at the same time, a lot of fun. As with last year's practices, the team was divided into the "Spuds" and the "Potato Heads", who worked out on fumble drills, conditioning tank treads, and air force football. Thus, the practices helped reinforce the fundamentals. Coach Newvine commented that the players were "taking the lumps out, but the future holds a lot of good things."

Upperclassmen Dike Ajiri, the leading tackler, rusher, and receiver, Ted Evans, the second leading tackler playing offensive tackle, and Lars Knudson, center and defensive tackle, served as the tri-captains for the team. Dike said that, "Despite our record, we did play a lot of games, and it was especially nice to finish the season well." The MIP was Abimbola Afariogun and the MVP was Dike Ajiri.

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1987 Cross Country team, coached by Tom Shields and Eric Linder, had a very successful season. Each runner was prepared and well conditioned. This year's team was probably the best that the school has had in a long time. The team's practices were more demanding than in the past, with one of their practice highlights being swimming. Under the leadership of senior co-captains Gordie Maitland and Ross Roy, the team soared to great heights. Maitland, who placed first at the ULS Invitational, commented that, "All the times went down incredibly throughout the course of the season. The team did a fantastic job in making sure that each team member was getting the support that he needed. Considering that the team members gave each practice their 100%, their improvement this season was a well deserved reward." The team finished with a record of 7-3 in dual meets. One of its most memorable feats was placing third out of eleven at the Whitmore Lake Invitational. Ross Roy was also impressed with the season, stating that "Cross Country rocks!" The MIP was Sreedhar Samundrala and the MVP was Gordie Maitland.

This year's J.V. Soccer team had an excellent season, finishing up with a record of 8-6. They played their best against Grosse Pointe North, dominating the game and winning with an impressive score of 2-0. Throughout the season, the entire team, made up of mostly freshmen, improved their skills a great deal while showing some great teamwork. Coach Healy said that their, "consistent hard work and positive attitude led to tremendous improvements and more wins than losses." In particular, James Kim proved himself to be an excellent fullback, while Duncan McMillan displayed immense skill at goal. This year's team tri-captains were John Gordon, Derek VandeGraaf, and Arnie Knudson. Gordon, a second-year player, commented that compared to last year's season, "J.V. Soccer has improved greatly thanks to Coach Healy." The MIP was Hari Rao and the MVP was Derek VanDerGraaf.

The 1987 Varsity Soccer team has had another successful year. Coach Backhurst comments, "The team's obvious success has been a real surprise to me. With the loss of eleven seniors and the return of only five players from last year's team, I did not think we'd be this competitive this year. I always thought we would be good, but I never expected we'd be ranked in the state's top ten. Not being in a front running position, I thought we'd be able to sneak up on he other teams. The team has responded well to the coaching and had demonstrated a great deal of drive and team unity." The team ended up in second place in class C-D. The 1987 tri-captains were Bill Jewett, Frank Karabetsos, and Mike Niccoloni. Bill Jewett won the Coaches award, and Frank Karabetsos was voted Most Valuable Player. Jonathon Davis was given the Most Improved award.

RESERVE AND J.V. FIELD HOCKEY

Eagerness to learn was the key element of this year's Reserve Field Hockey team. Under the coaching of Elizabeth Fowler, the team improved a great deal as the season progressed. They started off with half of their players never having picked up a field hockey stick before this year. Under these circumstances, the players must be commended on the fine effort which they showed against J.V. teams with bigger squads. Throughout the season, each of the team members improved both individually and as a team. Although shooting has been their toughest area, they have been working to improve it steadily. This year's co-captains were Amber Bredy and Mimi Issa. Bredy and Issa said that, "the team really came together and progressed a lot during the season."

The Junior Varsity Field Hockey team was undefeated in their league this year. The team really thought out their plays and acted on them. They were characterized by their consistency and incredible drive. The defenders were very aggressive and frequently moved up to play offensively. Their team unity and good attitudes were reflected in their extremely successful season. This year's tri-captains: Jennifer Davies, Liz Prus, and Susan Stefanski played a major role in pulling everyone on the team together and demonstrated excellent leadership. The team was skillfully coached by Susanne Wanamaker who described the team as "a great bunch of blood-thirsty, energetic superstars." The three senior captains agree wholeheartedly and add that they "know the unity and success will continue after our departure." The MIP was Jennifer Davies and the MVP was Karen Galsterer.

"Outstanding" is one word that can best describe the 1987 Varsity Field Hockey team's season. The team worked together wonderfully and "showed a lot of unity without any superstars." They emerged from the season placing second in the league. The new sophomore additions proved to be great assets to the team. Everyone on the team exhibited an abundance of enthusiasm towards the spirit of the game. The fact that each player gave each game "their all" was evident in their winning season. Coaches Muriel Brock and Nancy Dau said "This season was a team endeavor with a lot of very spectacular highpoints in team play. The combination of experienced and inexperienced players blended together to have a fine season."

This year's co-captains were Beth Birgbauer and Kim Owens. Owens was also impressed with how their season went, commenting that "It was great mainly because the whole team pulled through to tie last year's record." The 1987 team was full of capable players with good, solid fundamentals, and who were very team-oriented, which showed in the "warpaint" on their faces on home games days. The MIP was Carrie Carpenter and the MVP's were Kim Owens and Cathy Petzold.

J.V. TENNIS

The Junior Varsity Tennis team had a terrific season this year. They captured their first winning record in two years. The confidence which they had in each other helped contribute to their winning spirit. While all of the players showed excellent team spirit, there were also many individual victories. Coach Sandy smith commented that "many of this year's players have a good shot at varsity next year." One of the highlights of the season was their match against Ann Arbor Pioneer, which they won 8-0. Another highlight was the second place award which they won at the J.V. Invitational. The team's co-captains this year were Kendall Meade and Beth VanElslander. Kendall said that "we all came together as a team this year. We had a desire to win and we did it!" The MIP was Alice Rim and the MVP's were Kendall Meade and Beth VanElslander.

The 1987 Varsity Tennis team brought home the state title for the ninth straight year in a row. With this being the first year that Bob Wood coached the girls' team, he was very impressed with how the season went. Wood commented that "the season was fantastic for everyone involved. Being ranked #1 in the state for class C-D schools was really something to be proud of, but they never dreamed that they would be ranked #1 out of all the schools. With the schedule they played; winning four invitationals, regionals, and states, all of the girls should be proud of their accomplishments. The team's only loss was to Ann Arbor Pioneer, who was in the #1 spot at the time. This left the girls finishing the season with an impressive record of 8-1. This year's captains were (senior) Laura Rizzo, and (junior) Dawn Martin. Dawn played at #1 singles for her third consecutive year, while (junior) Elena Hunt finished her third consecutive year at #3 singles. Martin commented that they all "played hard and worked well together, giving 100% all the time." The MIP was Laura Rizzo and the MVP's were Elena Hunt and Dawn Martin.

VARSITY GOLF

"The 1987 golf team," summed up Coach Josh Schmidt, "had a good season. They worked hard to improve their skills and competed well in tough situations. The seniors, Charlie Roby, Gordie Stewart, and Tom Vallone, provided very good leadership for the younger guys on the team." Roby and Stewart served as captains of this year's team. Both had an excellent season; Stewart placed fifth at Regionals while Roby tied for ninth. The whole team placed fifth out of sixteen teams. They proceeded to compete in the City Championships and came in third place. Stewart then went on to compete in States. The team voted Gordie Stewart as MVP and James Combs as MIP.

"The 1987 Varsity Girls' Basketball team had a very successful season. Our offense has come a long way this year which has complimented our usually steady defense. We have a stronger inside game and our perimeter shooting has been more consistent. We have been steadily improving every year and with the nucleus of the team returning next year, I think we'll be even stronger." comments Coach Owens. The team had a lot of teamwork which helped their game a great deal. Captain Miriam Mueller says, "part of the reason that we had such a great season was due to the fact that we have grown together as a team and have learned to work well with each other."

J.V. VOLLEYBALL

The JV Volleyball Team improved a great deal this season. Ellen Renick, in her first year coaching the team, did a sensational job teaching the players the fundamentals of the game. Going into the season, the team had a goal that they wanted to get everyone to work hard and to have fun while they were at it. They fulfilled this goal successfully and hope that next year they can improve even more on their record. This year's team was made up of all freshmen and sophomores, some of whom had never played volleyball before. Sophomore captains Amber Bredy and Kelli Martin commented that "everyone on the team has really come a long way since the beginning of the season. We're achieving a sense of unity." Freshman Martina Jerant worked consistently all season to improve her serves while sophomores Melissa Simon and Tonya Clawson are complimented on their outstanding court control.

The Girl's Varsity Volleyball team had quite an outstanding season. The team was a young one made up of only three veterans, who were juniors. There were no senior players. Coach Owens comments that "this year's team members are young and talented and just starting to realize their potential. We have a very good chance of finishing second in our league, and we will have an honest shot at the championship next year." Good luck Varsity volleyball! Junior co-captains Diann Imbriaco and Sylvia Ristic led the team with a tremendous attitude which was appreciated by all of their teammates.

GIRLS' ICE HOCKEY=SQUASH

Girls' Ice Hockey is a club team that has developed into a varsity sport. At this point, it is the only one of its kind in Michigan. The team participates in a league and plays many games throughout the season. Although the players are always working hard, they never forget to have fun. Captains were Meghan Brady and Gina Villani.

Squash is a club sport exclusively for Juniors and Seniors. Several times a week, the students involved go to either Eastpointe or Wimbledon to play against each other. At the end of the season, they have an intramural tournament.

The JV Hockey Team had a goal at the beginning of the season: to try to play the best hockey that it could every single game. At the beginning of the season, the team suffered some severe losses, but later held the same teams to within 1 to 2 points. Throughout the season, there was a little trouble with scoring, yet the defense held up well. Some particularly exciting games were those played against the GP Chiefs and the SCS Hawks. These teams proved to be the JV Knights' toughest competition. Sophomore Paul Lanzon, first year goalie, did exceptionally well throughout the season. Kamran Jafri was known for his aggressiveness on the ice. Excellent defense plays were made by Stewart McLaren and Sreedhar Samundrala. Juniors Armistead Burwell and Paul Brigolin were the team captains while Kamran Jafri and Stewart McLaren served as co-captains. Their leadership was well respected by their teammates.

Third Row: Rob Lubers, Ted Evans, Greg Petrilli.

Senior captains Bill Jewett, Gordie Maitland, and Steve Stoyka led the Varsity Hockey team this year in a successful season. Contributing greatly to this winning season were high scorers sophomore Doug Wood (30 goals and 40 assists) and junior Shannon Nowowiecki (27 goals and 31 assists). Goaltender Steve Stoyka had a 88% save average and 3.33 goals against average. Forwards Charlie Roby and Greg Pertrilli, along with the defensive pair of Mike McCracken and Ted Evans used their previous experience to lead the team. An exciting and interesting addition to the team was Swedish foreign exchange student Fred Thelander.

Several highlights this season were beating South 4-2 in our own invitational tournament, playing teams such as Team Michigan, Chicago Young Americans and Little Caesars as well as defeating St. Clair Shores Falcons and Gabriel Richard. The team was also pleased with their play against talented archrivals Cranbrook and DCDS. Especially exciting was defeating Cabrini in Joe Louis Arena. The MVP of this winning team was goaltender Steve Stoyka, and the MIP was junior goaltender Mark Sullivan. The team's final record was 15-8-3, and expects to continue their winning tradition under captains Shannon Nowowiecki, Doug Wood and Mike Coello.

VARSITY SWIMMING

In its second year of existence, the Varsity Swim Team is steadily improving. The team is made up of swimmers of various skill levels, ranging from "non-swimmer" to advanced. Yet even those who started off the season in the "non-swimmer" category made considerable progress: not only in learning the fundamentals of the sport, but also in improving upon them. Senior captain Ross Roy was especially known for his unique strokes and his own special form. He worked well with Junior captain Liz Sieber in leading the team and giving everyone involved plenty of support. Exceptionally good swimmers were Tip Quilter and Neil Wehying. The team successfully fulfilled its goal from last year which was to keep the program co-ed and to build up its strength.

First Row: Neil Wehying, David Allen. Second Row: Coach Stavale, Dan Shanle, Sonny Randazzo, Tip Quilter, Lars Knudson, Bruce Wilkinson. Third Row: Jesse Bowwman, John Shanle, Steee Sanchez. The JV Basketball team had a terrific season. They lost only two games to DCDS and Cranbrook by 2 points each time. The team played a promising game in their scrimmage with G.P. North's JV team. It was especially impressive since G.P. North is Class A, and we are a Class C team. Although it was merely a scrimmage, Coach Gallagher felt that "our team was better." The team is made up of many players who will most likely make up a good Varsity team for the next 3 years. Freshman, Dedan Milton improved dramatically throughout the season and emerged as the most consistant scorer, "especially when it was hard to get those points." Freshman David Darby was the leading rebounder while Kevin Whitfield "made our press effective." Coach Gallagher ended by saying, "I think they were terrific and they've done a great job." Tri-Captains were Mike Barnes, Wade Brown, and Chris Carroll.

The 1987-88 Varsity Basketball team had a terrific season. Coach Wright comments that "all the players work as a team. We are very unified." The team finished their regular season with a fantastic record of 18-1 with the help of Assistant Coach Facciolla and Captains John Yancey and David Clifton.

They started out by beating Harper Woods in a spirit raising game. They later went on to win all their games except for the one against DCDS. Coach Wright was very pleased with the boys this season. He compliments them on their excellent skills in ball-handling, defense, and in working well under pressure. Coach Wright ends by stating with a smile "We've won with class and humility."

Dike Ajiri's outstanding performances during the 1988-basketball season earned him the MIP award. The MVP award was given to an excellent athlete, John Yancey.

SIXTH GRADE

The change from Lower School to Middle School is great for the ULS student. Here are some thoughts from sixth graders about the transition . . .

"It was weird to change from the oldest in the school to the youngest. You're used to having people look up to you. Now you look up to other people. It's a pretty big change . . . . You have to be much more responsible . . . I feel a lot more independent this year. This year we have a lot more pressure on us. -Jenny Slone

"To go into sixth grade is like to open the door to new responsibilities and freedom . . . It is hard to go from the leader of the school to the youngest." -Bobby Rabbini

"I like being youngest in the school for a couple of reasons. First, it gives you the security to ask about something you aren't sure about. Second, it gives you people to look up to." -Hope Durant

"Having responsibility makes us all feel older. I'm glad our teachers trust us and have confidence in us."

-Karen Schaupeter

"There was a rustling that seemed like a bustling
Of merry crowds justling at pitching and hustling . . . "
-Robert Browning

With patience and dedication, Ms. Walker guided her team to a rewarding season. While the players improved, they also had loads of fun. However the team would have never managed without Rae Goolsby. Much thanks to her as well.

Drama in the Middle School is offered to all students through the arts curriculum and also as an afterschool activity. In the fall, many students participated in the production of "A More Perfect Union" which celebrated the Constitution of the United States of America.

DRAMA

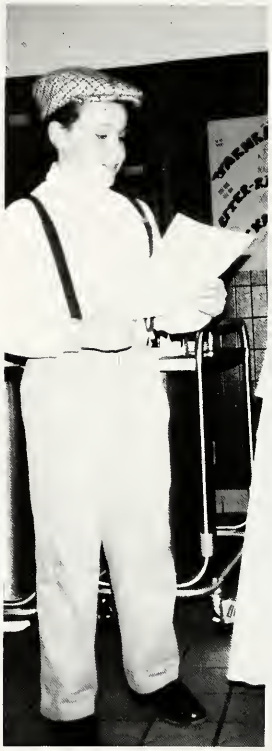
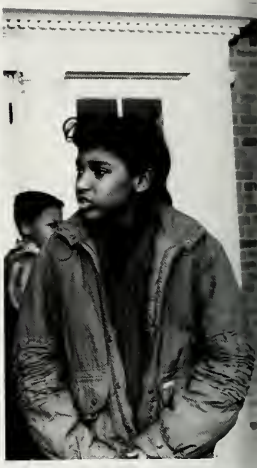
INTERNATIONAL DINNER



As always, the Middle School International Dinner was a raving success with a great turnout. Foods from numerous foreign countries and decorative costumes were the highlights of the evening. The foreign language department did an excellent job of organizing, singing, and dancing to accompany the other festivities.

HALLOWEEN '87

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT



The Middle School students have, as always, displayed a great deal of spirit. They have also developed a sense of unity in their many activities such as outings and the archaeology dig.

Third Row: Wesley Waterson, Cliff Magreta, John McNaughton, Mr. Murphy, Tom Waldron, Erin DeMeulemeester.

"School spirit is turning in homework on time, and sometimes doing extra. It also means to root for your school's hockey, football, baseball, field hockey, tennis, and basketball teams. Finally, it means helping the teachers or helping with other school events."
— Rosy McCarthy

"School spirit is about cheering for your school's team when you watch a game. It is also about volunteering your time or services to help with a school project. So when you go to watch a game, root for your school's team or volunteer your services to show some school spirit."
— Becky Simpson

"ULS. You're the best, The other team is going to be put to a test. Yaa! ULS!"
-Erica Denham

"ULS is the best. We are going to beat the rest. We are the ones to start the fun. Go ULS!!!"
-Adena Wright

QUILTING

This year, the fifth graders studied the Westward expansion of the settlers along the Oregon Trail. Suzanne Raymo, the lower school art teacher, chose this project because it related to their historical studies. Quilting has enriched their view of art, for anyone can be a quiltmaker. They discovered that their stereotypical view of women as better quilters than men was shattered; they saw that some boys were better quilters than some girls. Using visual images, the fifth graders generated ideas for their projects with great enthusiasm. Some of them gave up their recess time just to work on their quilts. Even more spirit developed with the opportunity to participate in the quilt show. Overall, the fifth graders' quilting projects demonstrated their ability to be creative and to have a good time.

FIFTH GRADE

FOURTH GRADE

This year, most of the fourth graders had the opportunity to learn how to play an orchestral instrument. With instruction from Mr. Hohmeyer, they learned the capabilities of themselves and their instruments. After continuous practicing, the fourth graders possessed a key characteristic which will help guide their way through life: discipline.

Why I Like ULS . . .

"ULS is a very good school and it's a learning school with a learning challenge and a lot of nice people."
-Anne Platt

"This school is fun: you get to go to art, music, gym and recess. And I like dismissal. University Liggett School has lots of people. I like the third grade because we read books, do math, and other things. My favorite thing to do is math."
-Shan Massand

"School is fun,
School is great.
The teachers are nice.
They're never late."
-Christina Simon

"I like ULS because the teachers want you to be the smartest of the smart. They give you work to make you smart and also the dismissal is earlier than the other school I went to,"
-Libby Fitzsimons

THE PLAYGROUND

"I like the playground because there is a playscape and nets for soccer. Also, we have basketball nets. When I'm tired, I can go into the big tunnel with my friend, so we can talk and laugh. When I'm out on the playground, I can be with all of my friedns and have a good time."
-Ralph Harik

SECOND GRADE

I like U.L.S. because . . .

"I learn very good things. My teacher is good too. I have a good time in music, art, dance, and science. School is good for me."
-Sherina Sharpe

"I think U.L.S. is the best! I learn a lot here. I also like math and hot lunches."
-Andrew Shipton

"I like the fact that we get extra work here so we won't get bored."
Mieke Tietge

"We have so many different classes and special teachers to teach them."
-Marcus Faust

ADMINISTRATION

UNIVERSITY LIGGETT SCHOOL

JOHN T. WHATLEY
HEADMASTER

To the Class of 1988:

When the yearbook staff gave me this assignment early in September, they gave me the theme "Spirit 1988." I'm habituated to doing what I'm told, and in this case it was an easy task because I see much spirit in and about ULS. Freshman-Senior Day occurred today; the staff's assumption that spirit would be the theme for 1987-88 was proven. The vitality of ULS is daily embodied in the common life of the faculty and the students. That spirit manifests, elevates and invigorates the human spirit.

The 1987-88 school year will be full of rich memories for me. I think immediately of the stability and excitement generated by the Class of 1988. Their leadership ranges from the innovative "ULS News" to a variety of services to the school community. Their excellence comes across in the number of National Merits, the unprecedently excellent results on Advanced Placements, and the way they have turned to the task of getting themselves into college. I see a similar purposefulness in each of the upper school classes.

Above all, this school year will always have a particular poignancy. Early in the year, upper schoolers led and conducted the service that remembered Ti Juan Kidd. That moment was a high point of mutual sensitivity and willingness to extend yourselves to Ti's family. They will never forget you and the comfort that you brought them.

That sensitivity and warmth was not confined just to Ti's service. In fact, I see it every day as I observe you going about your lives. I'm proud to have been associated with you and wish you all the best of futures.

Sincerely,

TJW

Until I went to a private high school where I was required to be on a team every semester, I didn't realize how beneficial sports could be. Since then, I have been grateful for such a requirement.

Sports became a tool for releasing academic pressures. While standing on an athletic field, I took a break from thinking about school work and rid myself of my daily frustrations. I also remember the time between sports when I thought how great it would be to have my afternoons free for homework. However, that only became time to procrastinate; whereas, an athletic season made me a more disciplined, productive, and energetic student.

Sports forced me to work closely with everyone; I became friends with people who I may have never had any contact with otherwise. The different emotion shared by teammates throughout a season could never be experienced in a classroom environment.

Athletics are a great way to get to know people, even your teachers (who, as coaches, are seen in a completely different light). Now teaching and coaching at U.L.S., I am discovering the exact same benefits from sports.

So, you want to know about my "other life", the one outside school . . . . It's not much different, really. I enjoy coming to work, and when I go home, I enjoy that too.

Some specifics:

If I have a dark secret, it is that I covertly consider myself a great center fielder in this slow body.

My favorite overt role is that of being a part of my little family. My wife, Ann, and four year old daughter, Katy, are the other parts. My wife is an elementary teacher too, so "school stuff" spills over into our home life. We both love being parents and spending a lot of time with Katy.

My idea of a great Saturday is shopping for dinner at Eastern Market, then cooking the purchases during the afternoon.

I love to read. Nothing heavy, just best sellers from the junior rummage sales. If I come across a word I don't know, I look it up. This week I had to look up "stertorous".

I like to drive long distances. Flying is okay: It's just that I love to see the road coming at me, so if I have a choice, I'll drive every time. I drive to Florida in the spring and try to watch all the exhibition baseball games a human can endure.

On Wednesday nights during the school year, I am a very average bowler. I am proud of this, because a few years ago, I was a very poor bowler.

I spend some of the summer in New Jersey. Ann and Katy come along. I coach at a baseball school there. The players come from all over the country — one came all the way from Venezuela! — and they love baseball as much as I do.

There are no career changes planned. If I don't get a call from the Yankees, I'll be around U.L.S. I look forward to teaching your kid in the fourth grade.

Present time is actually itself, a fresh here and now without frills and romantic expectations. It is concreteness, incarnate and real. It is like the radio in the upper school art room . . . if you stop and really listen there are lessons on the immediate air waves. The present real present is briskly and matter-of-factly emerging and gone again; it doesn't hang around and "veg" or give us much chance to ruminate and sift through futile alternatives.

Naturally, it is not easy to live in the bare present, attended only by our enlarged awareness. The present is not only totally . . . and as many kids say, "to the max", but it is also austere, unexpected and delicately unpretentious, and yet so uniquely true. How seldom do we fully live it in our expectations or among the dead relics of the past.

Can the present be in schools where students learn from each other?

Can skills best be learned when they are needed?

School . . . the word . . . comes from the Greek word Skola which means leisure. (I still ask . . . Can this be true?)

The difference, for me in the present- this present, between teaching subject and teaching students, YOU, is the difference between what might pass as education and what really is education.

Curriculum is an ancient Roman race track.

Teaching is not essential to learning, except what we do learn when we are teaching. I am struck by how much I learn from YOU.

Responsibility means the ability to respond.

I don't worry all that much about machines will begin to think like us. I do stay awake nights thinking about the possibility of us beginning to think like machines.

THESE ARE MY DOT-DOTS AND REFLECTIVE DASHES.

When I was about seven years old, I decided that my ultimate goals in life were to visit every country in the world and to be an actress. As you read this, I am hopefully on my way to fulfilling both dreams.

Having traveled extensively in the United States and Canada as a young adult, I branched out this summer into an instructional student ambassador program, and as a Teacher-Leader, headed an American delegation that traveled to Austria, Czechoslovakia, Germany, Switzerland, France, Spain, and Portugal. Plans are currently underway for a month-long excursion to mainland China next summer with an entirely new group of students . . . I can't wait!

It was challenging and difficult at first to keep my own acting and dancing skills polished while relocating and beginning a career as a teacher, but as an arts instructor you owe it to your students to practice your craft. Last year I was fortunate enough to be cast in dramatic productions with local professional and community theaters such as The Golden Lion Dinner Theater, R.J.'s, and the East Detroit Civic Theatre. My theatrical experiences with these organizations have been challenging, rewarding, and thorough enough to keep me in tune with the theatrical pulse in the Detroit area. One day I hope to combine my efforts in instructing and performing theater arts, overseas.

FOUR EXPRESSIONS OF ONE PHILOSOPHY.

Pictured below, you will find the shapely embodiments of the Acura philosophy to design automobiles around the driver. And to build those automobiles with precision craftsmanship.

The Legend Coupe expresses it with its exhilarating power, long list of luxury appointments and stunning looks.

The Legend Sedan places an emphasis on distinguished luxury, without forgetting performance. You'll delight in the feel of its powerful 2.7 liter, 24-valve V-6 engine as much as the optional leather trimmed interior.

And lastly, the very spirited Integra 3- and 5-door sports sedans are characterized by a flair for fun. Formula One derived 1.6 liter, 16-valve engines. Eager suspensions. Racy looks.

A test drive in the 1988 Acura Legend Coupe, Legend Sedan or Integra will go a long way toward proving the soundness of our philosophy. As well as demonstrating your own wisdom.

"Matching people and houses . . . with imagination"

83 Kercheval Avenue • Grosse Pointe Farms

Tel. 886-3400

"I Am Real Estate"

I am the basis of all wealth, the heritage of the wise, the thrifty and prudent.

I am the poor man's joy and comfort, the rich man's prize, the right hand of capital, the silent partner of many thousands of successful men.

I am the solace of the widow, the comfort of old age, the cornerstone of security against misfortune and want. I am handed down to children through generations, as a thing of greatest worth.

I am the choicest fruit of toil. Credit respects me.
Yet I am humble; I stand before every man bidding him know me for what I am and possess me.

I am growing in value through countless days. Though I seem dormant, my worth increases, never failing, never ceasing. Time is my aid and population heaps up my gain. Fire and the elements I defy, for they cannot destroy me.

I am increasing in strength. The centuries find me younger. My possessors learn to believe in me; invariably they become envied. While all things wither and decay, I survive.

I am trustworthy, I am sound. The thriftless speak ill of me. The charlatans of finance attack me. Unfailingly I triumph and detractors are disproved.

I am a producer of food, the basis for ships and factories, the foundation of banks. Minerals and oils come from me.

I am so common that thousands, unthinking and unknowingly, pass me by.

Forward Thinking.

You're always ahead at Wood Motors.

We offer you 40 years experience in sales and service. We are the leaders in the Detroit area auto import business. We're number one in VW sales in the Detroit area. We're the fastest-growing Mercedes-Benz dealer in town. And, we offer innovative, exceptional service backed up by the area's largest parts inventory.

At Wood Motors you'll find three high-quality automobile lines: Mercedes-Benz, Honda and Volkswagen. One of the largest selections in Detroit. Some of the lowest prices anywhere. And a fast, dependable service staff. To be a leader, it takes forward thinking. You'll find that and so much more at Wood Motors.

We're giving you 100%.

Forever be my friend

The extra time you gave to me
I cherished every moment.
I took then, I'll give you now
The friend I'll always be.

I'll share with you my hopes and dreams
And guide me with your light.
Together we can find the key
That opens up our lives.

Close your eyes when we depart
Remember the days behind.
Leave the memories in your heart
And travel the path you find.

Let us see the night and day
Where ever we extend
I took then, I'll give you now
Forever be my friend.
